YALE'S NEW "SURPRISE" TEAM THAT WILL FACE PRINCETON

PRICE ONE CENT.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

GREEN EDITION

EXPLORER ANDREE'S BODY FOUND ON THE Cross and Box of Documents Indicate Identity of Professor Who Started for North Pole in Balloon Eleven Years Ago.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 11 .- There is reason to believe that the body of Prof. S. A. Andree, the Arctic explorer, who in 1897 made an attempt to reach the North Pole in a balloon, has been found on the

JOSEFA OSBORN, SOCIETY WOMAN, MODISTE, DEAD

Famous for Her Playhouse lyn after a heavy voyage from Bra and Dressmaking Ventures.

Mrs. Josefa Neilson Osborn, former two days on a desolate island. society woman, who has been known The hardships encountered on the home, No. 2 Rutherford place.

Mrs. Osborn and Miss Munro had a fall- down upon them most of the time.

of the Stock Exchange, whose stepdaughter she was. Mr. Stout had proyided in his will for $100,000 for the benand $50,000 for the henefit of Dorothy Blackburn, then seven years old.

Mrs. Osborn alleged that at the time he created the trust funds Mr. Stout was of the belief that Dorothy Blackburn was his child.

It fill. One boat was lowered without difficulty after the passengers and crew had been awakened, but the second boat lowered was filled by an exhaust pipe near where it was faunched. Ten persons had already crowded into the little craft, and they were forced to jump that the passengers and crew
had been awakened, but the second boat
lowered was filled by an exhaust pipe sons had already crowded into the little craft, and they were forced to jump
that the belief that Dorothy Blackburn was his child.

From all accounts, the experience of three days, was murdered by election

"Circulation Books Open to All."

EVENING EDITION OUT OF LOS

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1908.

Three Sons of Capt. Hains and Their Cousin,

COAST OF LABRADOR

Labrador, Sept. 30, reports that Capt. Chalker, skipper of the American chooner Pelops, of Conception Bay, in Crusoe Plight.

gers, who, after being rescued, spen playhouse, died this afternoon at her few huts, were the more severe because the second and third cabin passengers Mrs. Osborn was interested in the of the Velasquez were forced to sleep playhouse with Norma Munro, daughter on the beach, with no bedding to keep of the late George Munro. Subsequently them warm and a driving rain beating ing out and suits and counter-suits re-suited.

The Velasquez was bound from Brazil to New York when she ran upon a reef. In March of this year Mrs. Osborn The vessel's bottom was pierced amidbrought a suit to set aside a trust fund ships by the rocks, and she soon began left by Jacob Stout, formerly president to fill. One boat was lowered without

ON DESOLATE ISLE BY A SHIPWRECK

Passengers and Crew of Steamer Velasquez Almost for her dressmaking venture and her small island, where there were but a

MIUKUEKED, BUT FEARED TO TELL

Witnesses Await Promise of Protection Before Naming Republican Worker's Slaver.

From all accounts, the experience of three days, was murdered by election the shipwrecked crew and passengers were thrilling. A high sea was run-

$5,000 A DAY FINES, ISP. S. BOARD EDICT

Utilities Commissioners' Ultimatum Gives Roads Until Saturday to

HAINS CHILDREN TAKEN AWAY BY GRANDMOTHER

"I Am a Broken-Hearted Woman," She Tells Evening

ree Sons of Capt. Hains and Their Cousin, Mollie, Off to Washington With Grandmother RACING FOR 1909, SAYS AN OFFICER OF JOCKEY CLUB

Member of the Jockey Club Declares the Sport of Kings Is Not by Any Means Dead on the New York Circuit.

ALL THE RICH STAKES WILL BE OMITTED NEXT SEASON.

Horses Donated to the Breeding Bureau Will Not Be Retired, Declares Authority-Stormy Times Ahead, but Jockey Club Will Weather Them.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

There will be racing in New York next season, according to a statement made to-day by an officer of the Jockey Club. On what basis or scale cannot be definitely stated just now, but the writer learned to-day. on the highest authority, that the game will weather the storm in some Glasner Gets Long Shot Home feet, and because of this fact the Breedin Front of George Beiley in Third Race.

and T. Jenkins Hains, left Word comes from Will Murray, the Chority to make a statement to the New York this afternoon for Washing- former starter, that plans have been As to racing next season, this same ton. It was rather a melancholy little made to give a sixty-days' race meet- member of the Jockey Club expressed various studs throughout the State had not supported Chanler. "Nothing could be more ridiculous," he said. "The Jockey Club holds the farmers responsible for nothing. The Breeding Bureau is strictly a Jockey "lub institution and will be maintained. Of course, the revenue of the Jockey Club, made up by forfeits, fines, li-censes, &c., has been greatly reduced since the anti-betting law went into efing Bureau cannot be catered to so extensively as in the past. Still, there is no ground for the belief that it is to be

Will Maintain Breeding.

"The Jockey Club will do all it can toward its maintenance on the high-st possible scale. No one has any au-

TO FARMONT CLU

The Folker Setting of the Control House and the Co